SCHOOL BOARD

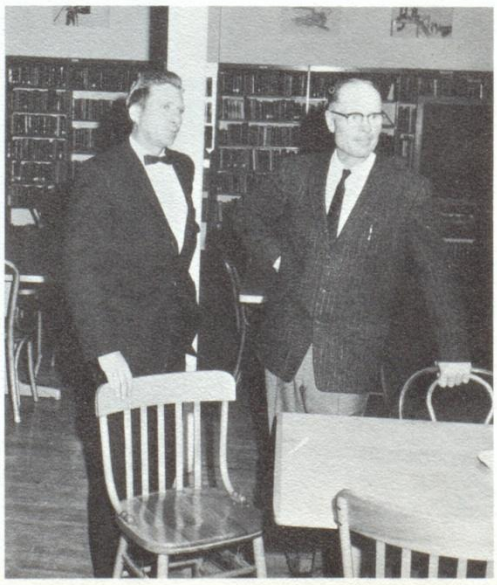

Mr. E. W. Thompson, Superintendent of Brush Schools, sits in his office at Thompson Elementary School.

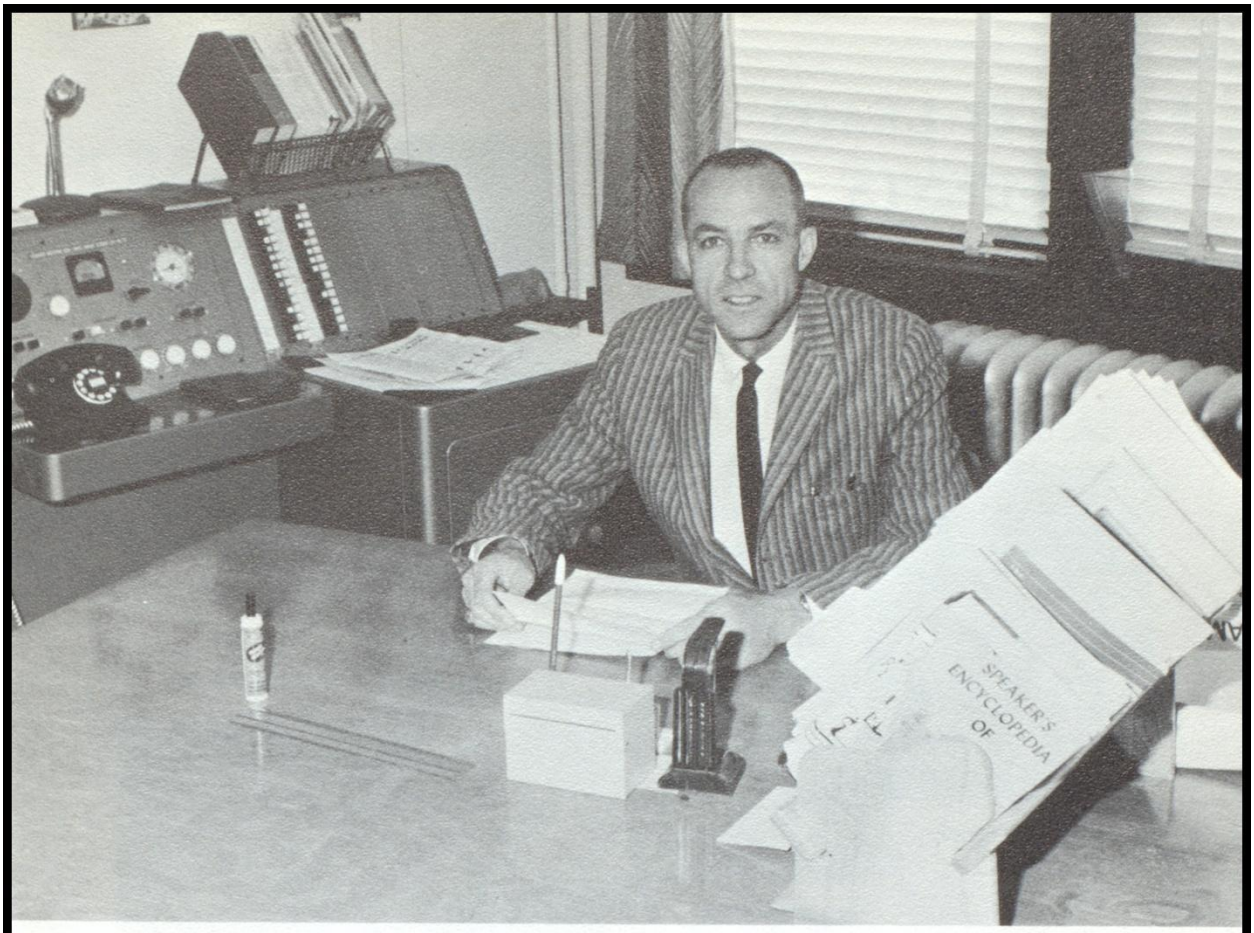

These men have donated many hours and much thought to give the students of the Brush Schools the highest possible scholastic learning. They have worked diligently to achieve and maintain the high standard of instruction which enables us to be among the schools accredited by the North Central Association.

This Sagebrush will serve as a log and journal of the events and achievements, friendships and occasions of fun, the day-to-day progress of your voyage aboard the good ship Brush High School. It will be a valuable possession as a memento of the crew and passengers for 1960-61.

Class officers for the school year 1957-1958 were president, Bill Giauque; vice-president, Bill Smith; secretary, Barbara Skinner; and treasurer, Ron Herbst. The sponsor of this freshman class, which numbered 75, was Miss Walters and Mr. Schreiner. At this time the class of '61 held to the lowest wrung on the ladder of esteem. Respect of upper classmen was one of the important duties of the freshmen. Another duty was to build the bonfire for homecoming. Brush lost the homecoming game but the bonfire surpassed all B. H. S. bonfires from 1955 to the present date.

Sophomore officers were Clive Jones, president; Bill Osborn, vice-president; Chuck Maupin, secretary; and Robert Lindell, treasurer. Bill Scott's Vespa took second place in the Homecoming parade with Bill Scott at the throttle.

Beginning the junior year, juniors elected Clive Jones as president, Renee Blessing as secretary, Bill Giauque as vice-president, and Ronnie Herbst as treasurer. The juniors continually tried to raise money for the junior-senior prom. Successful revenue raising projects were the football concession stand, a bake sale, a dance, and the junior class play. The class float again took second place in the Homecoming parade. The only set back of the year was the vandalizing of the concession stand.

Senior class officers were president, Bob Lindell, vice-president, Bill Giauque; secretary, Barbara Skinner; and treasurer, Linda Graves. Class colors were blue and silver. Escorts for graduation were Mary Dahms, Carol Mercer, Dennis Loose, and A. C. Lusby. Elected to serve as ushers were Kay Asheim, Marcia Davis, Laurie Harbert, Janie Hartwig, Janet Lebsock, Don Gabriel, Mark Kjeldgaard, David Olson, Ron Stoops, and John Watrous.

RADIO CLUB Works Toward Federal Communication Licenses

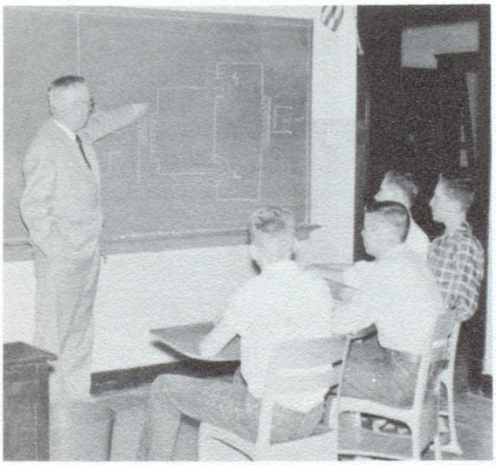

Mr. Thompson talks over his own transmitter.

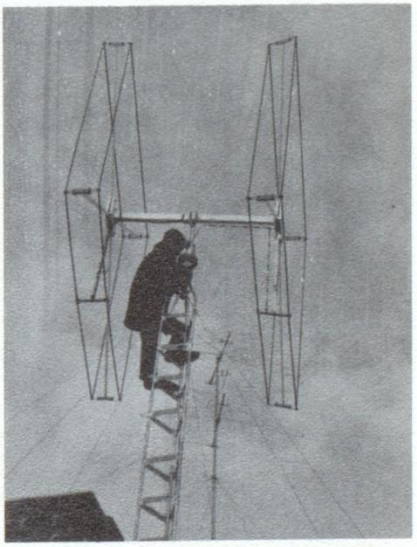

President Duane Badde prepares to send a message in Morse Code.

The principal purpose of HAM radio is to train amateurs to receive their own licence from the FCC. As in the preceding years, Radio Club was split up into two divisions. First division for the advanced students, second is for the beginners.

The sponsor, Mr. Schweers, explains the parts of the radio to the club members.

Secretary Paul Staby works on his own radio antenna.

Members of the Model Airplane Club are, from top to bottom: G. Wofford, J. Sears, J. Von Riesen, J. Sears, B. Van Dyke, Mr. Mercer, Sponsor, P. Staby, M. Kastler, J. Staby.

MODEL AIRPLANE CLUB Furthers Interest in Aviation

Model Airplane Club for 1961 has decreased from about 30 members last year to about 10 members for this year.

Mr. Mercer says even though it is smaller, he thinks it will be more successful than ever before because the boys who are in the club this year are the ones who are really interested in model planes.

The club's purpose is to stimulate interest in aviation. This is done by constructing, building, and flying model planes.

The club meets every Tuesday and spends most of the noon hour flying and discussing model planes.

Paul Staby launches his own free flight plane from the fire escape. These free flights are capable of flying great distances, it depends on the amount of fuel they can carry.

Mark Kastler has started a new hobby to enable him to retrieve his plane in case something goes wrong.

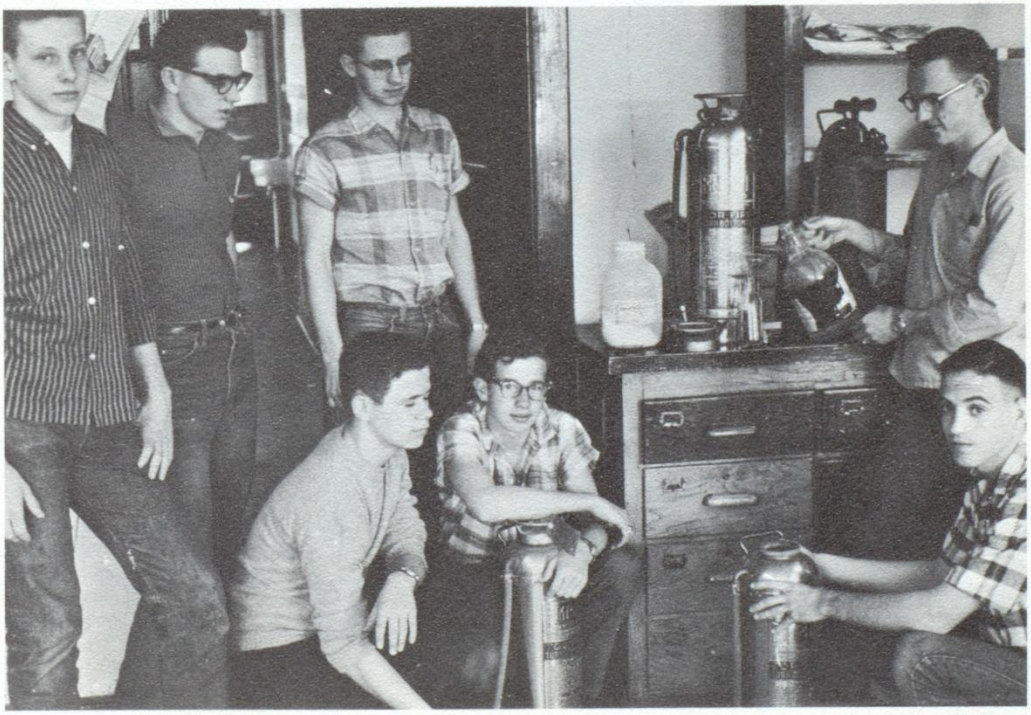

SAFETY CLUB

Brush High School's junior class elected officers at their first fall meeting. A. C. Lusby was re-elected president, John Watrous was made vice-president; Mary Dahms, secretary; and Karen Koehler, treasurer. The junior's main problem, as in preceding years, was the making of money. The main source of revenue this year was football concessions, basketball programs, candy selling, and bake sales.

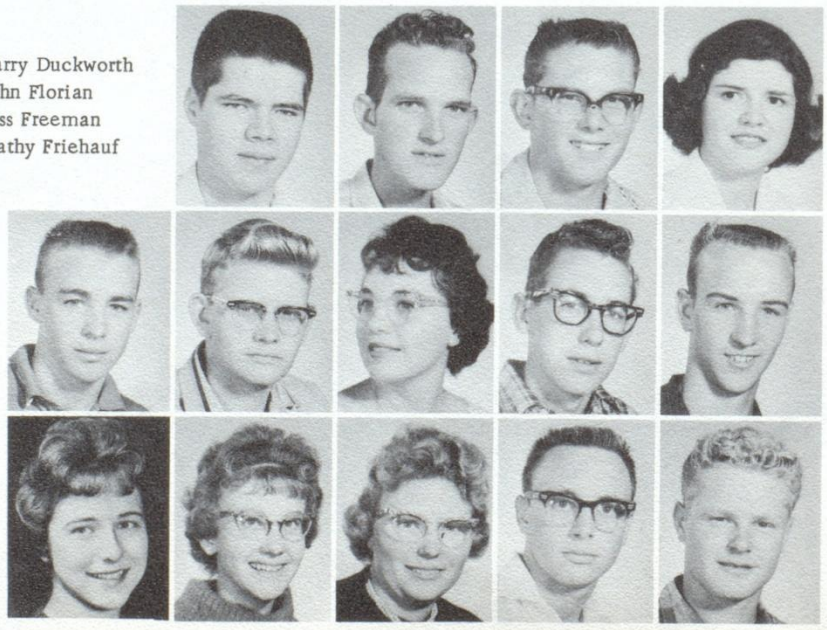

The object of all this money making was the Junior-Senior Prom. The juniors chose the theme of "Fascination," and the decorations were carried out in Japanese style. The prom is the highlight of the year for the junior class.

This year's Homecoming float prize went to the senior class, thus cutting off the Class of 62's wish of winning the prize three straight years. The junior's had another fine float, however, and obtained a second prize.

'60 HOMECOMING Is Successful

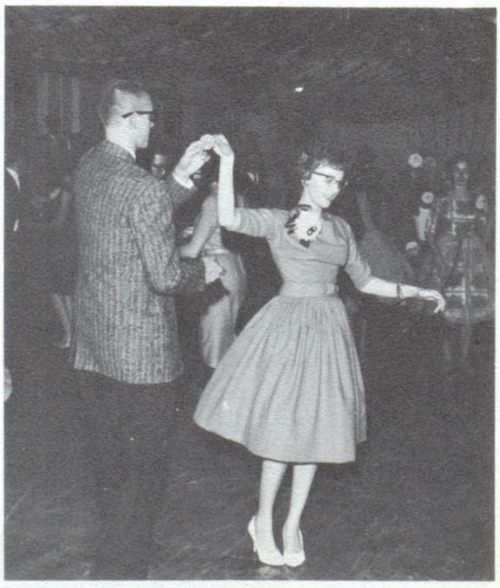

1960 Homecoming began with the bonfire held at the fairgrounds. The wood for the fire was furnished by the freshman class.

Participating in the parade were the Band, Pep Club, class floats, and the grade school band. Receiving first place for their float was the class of 1961.

Queen candidates included Barbara Skinner, Renee Blessing, Amy Asheim, and Homecoming Queen Nancy Teter.

The Homecoming Game played with Ft. Lupton was won by the Diggers with a score of 14-7.

BOSTROM CROWNED

Mr.Beetdigger

Head cheerleader Carol Mercer crowned wrestler, football player and track man Howard Bostrom "Mr. Beetdigger" for 1961. He was chosen on the basis of athletic participation, good sportsmanship and general character by the Pep Club. This year the Pep Club bought a plaque on which will be engraved the names of all Howard's successors beginning with 1961.

The Continentals from Greeley provided the music. Members of the Mothers Council chaperoned.

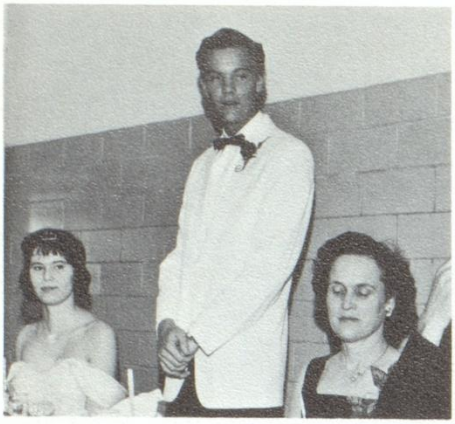

Ann Petty headed the decoration committee. Decorations of a new flavor boasted a fountain, false ceiling and murals painted by Pam Meier.

Drama Presented As FALL PLAY

A drama of suspense, The Girl in the Rain, was this year's fall play production under the direction of Mrs. Bloom. The "girl," portrayed by Pam Meier comes one stormy night to the wealthy home of Alicia Underhill (Robin Bolinger) and her bachelor son, David, played by Richard Andersen. The girl has amnesia and is permitted to stay at the Underhill home until she recovers. David, though, refuses to believe, as the others do, that she is faking and is the Hall Murderess. This he believes because he has fallen in love with the girl. In the end, however, David and the girl come together and the real Hall Murderess is caught.

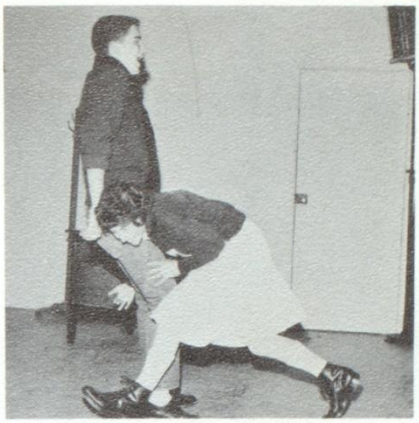

Thomas, the butler, is shot by Alicea Underhill, the Hall Murderess, as he wants a bigger cut of the profit. Eve, the girl, contributes to the excitement by screaming.

"Rocket in His Pocket" Presented As the JUNIOR CLASS PLAY

"A Rocket In His Pocket" was the Junior Class Play this year. It all begins, when Joseph Jones, alias spaceman, portrayed by Ron Stoops, sets off his super rocket from the Blue Remrock High School classroom at exactly 8:44 a.m. This sets off one of many harassing events for Mr. Agnew, played by Tom Monnahan. Mr. Agnew is the first man teacher in Rimrock High School in ten years. All the responsibilities such as football coach have been taken over by rowdy-dowdy principal Mrs. Matchett, portrayed by Mary Dahms.

Mrs. Matchett demonstrates a tackle on one of her students.

Mr. Agnew gets friendly with a fellow teacher, Miss Chisle. He thinks, through her he can get on the better side of Mrs. Matchett.

Arlin Abbot having caught his thumb in a desk is carried out for a fire-drill.

CHRISTMAS CONCERT
Presented in Sound and Sight

December 20, 1960 marked the date of the annual Christmas Concert. Dramatic direction was handled by Mrs. Bloom while Mr. Woolley commanded the music department.

Tableaus were used for the second time in the Christmas Concert this year but most of the people seemed to enjoy this different light reflection on the Christmas story scenes. All the roles in the story were filled by members of the Senior Class.

Head coach LeeRoy Needens completed his second year at BHS by guiding the Beetdiggers to a 17 won-4 lost record and a second place finish in the State Tournament at Denver. In addition to this, the Beetdiggers were first in the conference standing with a 9 won-1 lost record, and they won the District Tournament in Greeley by defeating Fort Lupton and Windsor in their two games. The Diggers also defeated last year's state champions, Akron, twice. The team will lose only one member of its starting squad via graduation. He is all-stater Bill Giauque. Dick Anderson, Blair Gay, Rich Gilliland, and Howard Sharp also played their last year for BHS. This year's leading scorers Bob Smith and Ron Stoops, as well as the other two starters, John Watrous and Mark Kjeldgaard, will be back again next year. All of this, as well as a fine "B" squad, gives every indication that the Beetdiggers will again be a class "A" power for the 1961-62 season.

Bob Smith (41) shakes Jack Lintz's hand for the last time and the ball game is on. Watrous (32), Giauque (25), Kjeldgaard (34), and Stoops (35), await tipoff. Lintz, 6'8", tallest player in the Tournament, along with Uhlenhopp, 6'5", set the pace later on in the game.

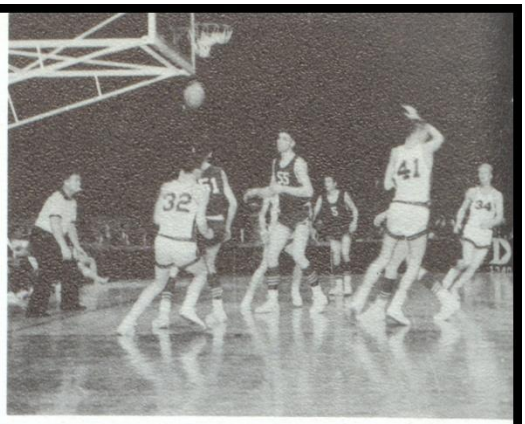

Smith shows perfect form as he drives around Ronnie Uhlenhopp (51) for two of his 23 total points.

Brush and Akron were evenly matched in the opening

Brush and Akron were evenly matched in the opening period of play, as they matched basket for basket and free throw for free throw.

Pictures on this page were taken in the first and second quarters of play.

The game was tied at the conclusion of the first period, 17-17. Akron played doggedly in the second stanza and held a 39-35 half-time lead.

Smith hooks right handed for two points as Watrous comes in to rebound, just in case.

Ron Stoops shoots a free throw as Dick Gray (5) gives Watrous the "eye."

Mark Kjeldgaard (34) attempts a lay-in, only to find Lintz in his way, and has to pass off.

With the strenuous pace set in the game, Coach Needens decides to call time out and talk over the defense to use against the Giants.

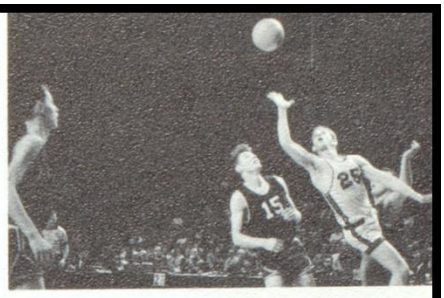

Blair Gay shows the power of a substitute as he hits a jump shot for two more Digger points.

Watrous scores to give the Diggers life in the second period.

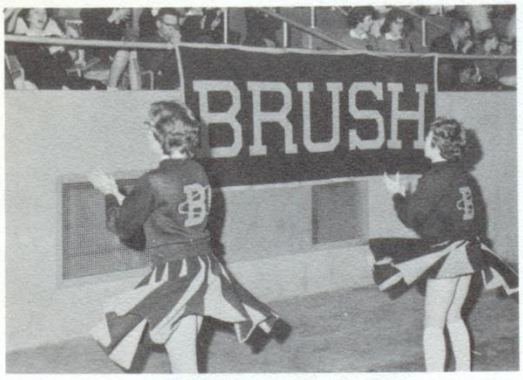

At right, Bill Giauque, Digger team captain, lays the ball up for two more points. Bill stole the ball from the Ramblers numerous times in the ball game, and enabled the Diggers to stay in contention. Shots like these were only a few of the factors that made Bill a member of the All-State team.

SADIE HAWKINS WEEK
Is Again Observed

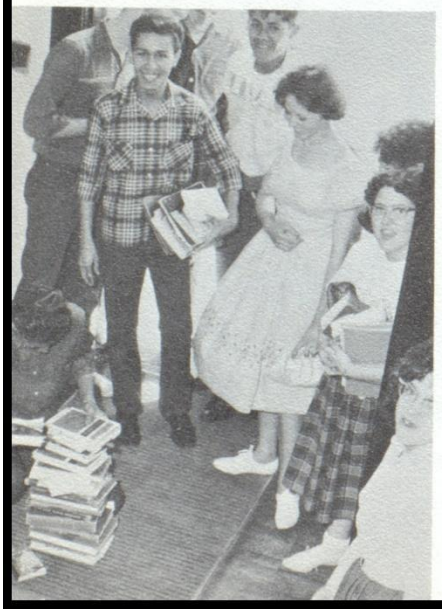

Laurie Harbert pays Ann Petty and Barbra Skinner for her newly bought slave, Blair Gay.

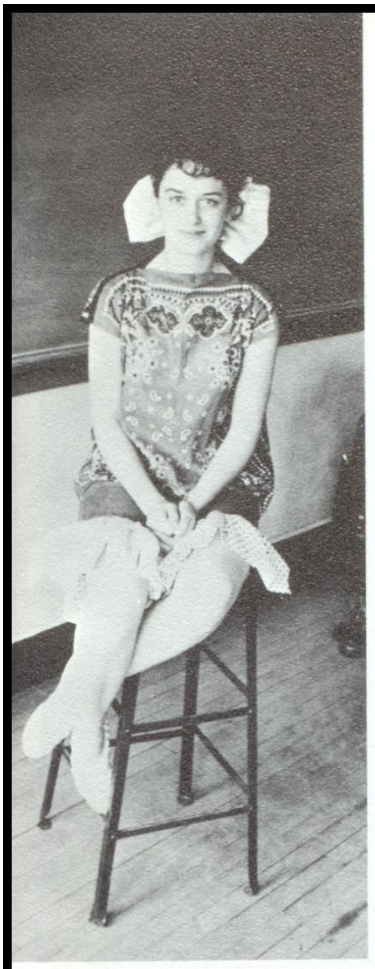

The Student Council of B. H. S. sponsored the second annual Sadie Hawkins week, the 24th through the 28th. The weeks activities began with the slave auction on Thursday, the 27th. The slaves were volunteers from the boys of the senior class. The bidders were the girls of the student body. Mr. Richards, the auctioneer, sold the boys by holding up a card to be bid on. The girls weren't allowed to bid over $.25.

Blair Gay pauses to get a better grip on Laurie's many books.
